

English Language Proficiency

EF Set is a great resource for identifying if you are at the B2 English Proficiency level.

A B2 level of English would allow you perform as needed regarding assignments and communication for school. There are many non-native English speakers in international settings that have this level of English. Please note that at the B2 level, you may miss some of the subtleties and implied meanings in conversation.

According to the official CEFR guidelines, someone at the B2 level in English:

1. Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialization.
2. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.
3. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.
