A Letter from the President

I am Dr. Jim Etter, president and CEO of Citizens High School, I am also the founder and former CEO of American Military University, American Public University, and the American Public University System (APUS). I started American Public University with an initial 18 students and shepherded its development through its initial startup to public traded company (NASDAQ:APEI) with over 120,000 students majoring in over 80 degree programs. In 2018, I decided to purchase Citizens High School with a vision to create innovative partnerships and lasting global education opportunities for international schools, institutions and students.

Established over 40 years ago Citizens' High School has helped hundreds of international students earn an accredited and recognized US High School Diploma. Our innovative Dual Diploma program is tailored to meet the needs of students globally through taking just 6 courses with CHS and earning an accredited US diploma as well as diploma from your local school. These diplomas will unlock your passport to a world of opportunities.

We hope you find this program rewarding and that we are able to assist you in realizing your dreams of earning a US diploma and enrolling in an American college or university.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jim Etter, President of Citizens High School
